	Costs of a $10,000 investment	Costs paid as a percentage of a $10,000 investment
Class I shares	$103	2.09%

How has the Fund performed?

(a) The Fund commenced operation on June 10, 2019.

The above line graph shows the value of a hypothetical $10,000 investment in the Income Fund's Class I shares versus the Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Aggregate Bond Index, the Income Fund's regulatory benchmark. The Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Aggregate Bond Index is a widely used indicator of the bond market. The index is market capitalization-weighted and is made up of U.S. bonds that are primarily investment grade and has a greater number of securities than is found in the Fund's portfolio. Please note that indices do not take into account any fees and expenses of investing in the individual securities that they track and individuals cannot invest directly in any index.

The performance data quoted here represents past performance. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data quoted above. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate, so that shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The returns shown do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund distributions or on the redemptions of Fund shares. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Performance figures for periods greater than 1 year are annualized. Updated performance data current to the most recent month-end can be obtained by calling (833) 974-3787.
